

THE NORTH CAROLINA NATIONAL ESTUARINE RESEARCH'S COASTAL TRAINING PROGRAM &
BRUNSWICK COUNTY ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS PRESENT:

Promoting Living Shorelines for Erosion Control – A Virtual Workshop for Real Estate Professionals

Tuesday, March 12, 2024 – 9:00am - 1:00pm

Online via Webex

Workshop Objectives – Participants will learn about:

- The benefits and limitations of using living shorelines for erosion control;
- Different shoreline stabilization techniques, including living shorelines;
- Living shoreline permitting process;
- Using marsh plants and oyster shell to prevent erosion; and
- Living shoreline projects in North Carolina.

Agenda

8:30am	Check-in
9:00am	Welcome and Introduction
9:15am	Living Shorelines: Benefits and Limitations – Whitney Jenkins, N.C. Coastal Reserve
10:00am	Break
10:10am	Estuarine Shoreline Stabilization Design & Techniques Mariko Polk, North Carolina Sea Grant
11:00am	Break
11:10am	Permitting Living Shorelines – Bryan Hall, N.C. Division of Coastal Management
12:00pm	Break
12:10pm	Best Practices for Working with Marsh Plants and Oyster Shell Georgia Busch, North Carolina Coastal Federation
1:00pm	Adjourn

North Carolina
Coastal Federation
Working Together for a Healthy Coast