

No public comments or formal objections were submitted to the Division that referenced or opposed the proposed lease during the designated comment period.

